MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY.

The Society met in Bishop Hall, Punahou, on the evening of April 30, 1904, with the President, Dr. A. B. Clark, in the chair.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. O. H. Gulick, followed by the hymn "Blest be the Tie that Binds," led by Miss Castle.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved; also the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Managers. While the collection was being gathered in by Treasurer Dickey, the President suggested, as a means of increasing the funds, that each member present put his name down as an annual member, by the payment of one dollar, and then secure as many other annual members as possible. Hon. C. H. Dickey and Clarence H. Smith were appointed to assist the Treasurer in taking the names of such annual members.

Then followed the reading of a part of the Secretary's Annual Report.

Mrs. Cornelia Damon and daughters, accompanied by Miss Caroline Castle, sang a beautiful rippling trio entitled, "Charming Fairies Trip."

Mrs. Weaver introduced a Hawaiian from the Lunalilo Home, Kaoana, formerly of Puna, Hawaii, who rendered several weird selections upon the Ohe Hanaihu, or nose-flute, now rarely heard even among the old Hawaiians. He also intoned some of the oli's of the olden times.

The Treasurer's Report was read, and the President's Address followed.

The President wished to emphasize the idea that the Society is the same that it has ever been. There has been added the Recorder's office, and as much time and labor has already been spent in preparing and sending out blanks, and as much labor yearly will be required to perfect the work, he hoped all those receiving blanks would assist in making these records as nearly perfect as possible.

He spoke of the debt of love and reverence we owe to the Fathers and Mothers of the Mission, and thought something should be done to perpetuate their memory; of the great aloha of the absent members of the Society, and their fond memories of the past, and felt that these reminiscences must be preserved in some tangible form; and then he spoke of the great longing he had to embody these ideas in a home for the Society. And now, he said, there is a prospect that these hopes may be realized. The Society is not able, alone, to do this, but with the aid of the Hawaiian Board, which is in great need of just such a home, and possibly with the help of the Historical Society, he felt that the old Bingham house or the Chamberlain property, or both, might be secured. With this great thought in mind he called upon Rev. W. D. Westervelt first, for a five minute speech about the "Missionary Fathers," upon W. W. Hall to speak about "The Society, its Past and Future," upon W. O. Smith, to tell whether it is "Worth while to try to secure a Home," upon Dr. Emerson to speak for the Historical Society, and Mr. Gulick to speak for the older members.

Rev. W. D. Westervelt, as the last of the Missionaries sent out by the American Board, said that this mission stands before the world as a success, and its encouragement to other missions is immeasurable. He was glad to bear his testimony to the nobility, perseverance and unbounded influence of the Fathers, and he thought something should be done to perpetuate their memory.

Mr. W. W. Hall recalled the organization of the Society, when all the young people were present, and the enthusiasm they felt as Halsey Gulick presented the idea. He told of the music committees later, and the "Maile Wreath," with its fancy covers and headings; and as he talked he seemed to live over again the joys of the "veranda brigade."

Mr. W. O. Smith on the advisability of a home said, that at first he thought it would be practically impossible, but when the suggestion was made to combine with the Hawaiian Board and the Historical Society he thought it entirely feasible. The fathers are gone, the children are scattered, and if anything is to be done it must be done soon. The old Chamberlain home is substantial and may last a hundred years or more. It could easily be made fire-proof, and there the records and curios could be preserved.

Dr. Emerson liked the idea, but as the Historical Society's treasures consisted mainly of books, they needed a librarian to catalogue and care for these books, and this librarian must be paid; so he did not see how the Historical Society could very well join; but he did like the plan for the Hawaiian Board and H. M. C. Society.

Rev O. H. Gulick said the Hawaiian Board is now renting. They have invaluable records and need a place to store them, and he thought the combining idea a happy one.

Mr. W. O. Smith then presented the following resolution:

Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that the obtaining of such a home for the Society would be desirable, and that the matter be referred to the Board of Managers.

The nominating committee, through Mrs. E. A. Weaver, presented the following names for officers for the ensuing year:

Dr. A. B. Clark, President.

Hon. W. R. Castle, Vice-President.

Mrs. R. W. Andrews, Secretary.

Judge Lyle A. Dickey, Treasurer.

Hon. C. H. Dickey moved that the Secretary cast the ballot for these officers. This was done and they were declared elected.

Treasurer Dickey stated that the Bond Fund amounted to $3,147, and moved that the $147 be sent to the Pleasant Island Mission. It was so voted.

Miss Ada Whitney, accompanied by Miss Mary Alexander, sang a very sweet solo from "Allah."

The President then gave the meeting into the charge of Mrs. E. A. Weaver and Mr. W. E. Rowell, and all adjourned to the spacious portico where awaited them lovely Hawaiian-born maidens of missionary descent, with "sweets to the sweet," sugar-cane, and freshly gathered cocoanuts with straws.

Add to this the full tropical moon, which one of the speakers said "always reminds us of the Cousins Society," the stately columns of the building and the broad steps leading down to the palms and feathery algarobas of the College Campus, and you have a picture never to be effaced, and a social hour of rare delight.

All thanks are due to our efficient President and equally efficient Vice-President for one of the most pleasant evenings in many years.

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

But one meeting was held during the year, a very important one, at the residence of B. F. Dillingham, Nov. 7, 1903.

The hymn "Jesus shall Reign" was sung, followed with prayer by Dr. J. M. Whitney.

The minutes of the adjourned meeting were read and accepted, also the minutes of the special meeting on Revision.

The Constitution and By-Laws, as amended by the committee, were read, article by article, discussed, somewhat modified, and adopted. It was voted to prefix the original preamble, with its date, 1852, to the amended Constitution. After the changes were satisfactorily made it was voted to adopt the By-Laws as a whole.

The Society was happy to welcome home Miss Chamberlain, who, though scarcely recovered from illness, gave a short account of her trip to the States. She spoke briefly of many cousins—Mrs. George Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer, Miss Norton, Mrs. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, Dr. Justin Emerson and many others. She spoke of the long distances and the difficulty of reaching friends, and noted especially a carriage ride at night through rain and mud, in a thunder-storm, when it was borne in upon her that “many waters cannot quench love.” She spoke of the aloha that absent members have for this Society.

The President responded. He thought the changes now being made would increase and not lessen the love of those abroad. He thought the time had come when the Cousins should have a home wherein to deposit its treasures, and he looks forward to the weekly crowded house in the Society’s own head-quarters.

The following names were added by the President to the Board of Managers :

W. O. Smith,	W. R. Castle,
L. A. Thurston,	W. F. Dillingham,
C. H. Cooke,	S. E. Damon.

After singing “From Greenland’s Icy Mountains” the Society adjourned.

A meeting of the Board of Managers was held at Hon. W. R. Castle’s, March 5, 1904.

The President presented a blank form to be sent out for obtaining statistical information for the Record, which was approved.

R. W. Andrews moved that the pages of all future Annual Reports be widened, so that the addresses of the members may be placed on the lines with the names. The motion was passed.

On motion the usual number of eight hundred copies of the Annual Report was ordered printed.

A letter from E. C. Bond, regarding the Permanent Fund, was read, and the Treasurer moved that all the money over $3,000 be sent this year to the Pleasant Island Mission.

W. R. Castle moved that the program for the annual meeting be put into the hands of the President, Secretary and Treasurer. Committees were appointed, and the meeting set for April 30, to be held at Bishop Hall, Punahou.

MRS. R. W. ANDREWS,
Recording Secretary.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

This has been a year of retrenchment and change. The retiring President, in his closing address last year, stated the facts concerning the finances of the Society, and made suggestions for the future. From the heart of the Cousins has come a great sigh of regret, but no remedy has been suggested.

We have needed a rally of all the Cousins, but that could not be. We longed for the opinion of the many on questions of great importance, yet it was left to a mere handful of Honolulu members to decide. The Constitution has become almost sacred, and the smallest changes seem like sacrilege, yet some change had to be made to meet the changed conditions.

In the present financial conditions of the country money could not be collected to meet the appropriations, hence the necessity for cutting down appropriations.

Then there was the constantly diminishing attendance. The Christian Endeavor, Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A. and other societies and clubs drew away the young people, and business and home cares detained the older members. For this reason it was thought best to appoint but one regular meeting in the year, other meetings to be called by the President when necessary.

To some of the young people the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society seems a sort of "back number," yet not far enough removed into the dim and distant past to have about it the halo of antiquity. They do not yet appreciate the fact that they are members of the oldest, grandest society on these islands, and the most unique in existence; a society rich, in that it has over $76,000 invested in celestial bonds, bearing interest continually, and select, in that it is made up of the first families in the land, (missionaries' sons and daughters and those in sympathy with them,) and that hereafter it can be added to only by admitting their descendants. Hon. G. D. Gilman says, "The Roll of Membership is a roll of honor for each name that is there."

A few years hence the Hawaiian Mission Children will be as proud of their membership as are the Sons and Daughters of the Revolution to trace their lineage. Confident that this will be the case, and looking forward to this not distant day, it was thought best to incorporate into the society this commemorative idea. To this end two changes were made. First, the membership of the Society will hereafter be restricted to the descendants of the missionaries, together with such as are already members of the Society, with their consorts and descendants. Second, a Recorder was appointed to secure and preserve statistical records of the missionary families.

As the finances will be still further depleted by lessening the number of meetings, and by receiving fewer new members, the Cousins are asked to suggest ways of augmenting the funds in the treasury.

Missionary Items

Captain Walkup, veteran missionary to the Gilbert Islands, passed through Honolulu, Aug. 29, 1903, on his way from a visit to his children on the mainland. He reported the resignation of Rev. I. M. Channon, of Kusaie, because of ill health. Mr. Delaporte speaks of Mr. Channon's arduous duties and efficient work in spite of physical weakness.

From long, interesting letters received from Mr. and Mrs. Delaporte, we quote the following:

Dear Friends: The Master's work on this island during the past year has been attended with both encouraging and discouraging features.

More real conversions can be recorded for the past year than for any previous year since the establishment of the mission. Many of our Pleasant Island brethren have been sorely tried during the year, but have withstood the assaults of the evil one, while a few have given up the fight and have gone out from among us.

All the temporal needs of the mission and missionaries have been most bountifully supplied by the Honolulu and other friends of the work, and we take this opportunity to thank them. We would greatly rejoice if some kind christian brother would donate a communion set to our church.

At each communion service the Lord has added to the church. In all, one hundred and thirteen persons have been admitted during the year.

We have built two more meeting houses, which gives us five preaching stations—at Oro, Ewa, Anibare, Menan and Buada. At each of these stations services are held every Sabbath and Wednesday in the year. More than six hundred natives hear the Word of God every Sabbath.

Our Sabbath school, which follows the morning services at Oro, is attended by young and old, and is very much alive. We studied during the larger part of the year the Old Testament. Picture rolls sent by various friends have been of great value, and are very much appreciated by the natives. Picture cards have been given from time to time, to the junior classes, to their genuine delight.

The average attendance of our four day-schools has been about three hundred, mostly children. Many of the scholars manifest an earnest desire to become followers of the Lord. Quite a number of the older ones are professing Christians. A few of the weaker children, mostly children of thorough heathen parents, have been coaxed away from our school by the Roman priest and his tools with tobacco, rice and "promises" of other things.

During 1902 we had only three schools, but early in 1903 we opened another at Anibare, and placed one of our own graduates, David Quabin, in charge. He has done good work. In August we put Lajanar and wife, our Marshall helpers, in charge of the Ewa station. This is a hard field and has caused us much sorrow. The people here attend church and school but are slow to renounce their heathen customs. The Roman Catholics have their main station here. One of our training school scholars has charge of the little school at Menen. This leaves Mrs. Delaporte and the writer to care for the main school at Oro, with over two hundred scholars—rather more than we can do. School hours are from nine to twelve. We teach Bible stories, catechism, reading, writing, church-history, arithmetic, geography, German and singing. We are in need of large school maps—at least maps of the two hemispheres and Europe.

In February we commenced to distribute the Scriptures, which we had printed at Kusaie. The Rev. I. M. Channon, of the Gilbert Mission, and Dr. C. F. Rife, of the Marshall Mission, and their scholars, did all the printing and binding. I did the proof-reading. We could thus print five hundred copies of Matthew, John, and several epistles, and five hundred hymn books containing sixty-six hymns, in a little over two months. About half of these books have been sold. In July we published a small edition of our little German Hymn Book, printed and bound by Rev. I. M. Channon also.

Through the grace of God strength and time were found to translate and compile a large Bible catechism of about one hundred and fifty pages, which is at present undergoing its final revision. First Corinthians and Acts are translated but not revised. Old Testament Bible Stories will, perhaps, be ready for the mimeograph in March, as more than half are translated.

Owing to dry weather during most of the year we did not have as much sickness as during former years, and yet we are kept quite busy attending the sick and suffering. Our medicine chest now is quite empty, and many have to be turned away.

Perhaps it will interest you to hear that both Mrs. Delaporte and I ride more than one hundred miles a month in order to do our teaching preaching and visiting work in the different districts. The missionary bicycle is quite a feature in the work, for without it it would be impossible to get often enough about to look after the people. It is hard to find your way among the cocoanut trees at night, and collisions are frequent. When we run over a stray pig, or if some frightened old woman throws her nuts in our path, or if we strike a cocoanut log and find ourselves hugging the dust we say, "Praise the Lord anyhow," pick ourselves up and go peacefully on our way. We do not try to make fast time, but after all, when called to the side of a dying or sick person during the night it is the quickest way to get there and home again.

We had several visitors during the past months. Mr. Arundel, and a Mr. Crosby of Sydney and Melbourne, came on a large 3,000-ton steamer in February. The Governor and family arrived in August and remained five weeks on our island. Mr. Walkup, of the Gilbert mission, gave us a ten-minute call on his way to Kusaie, Oct. 6. We enjoyed these visitors very much. We are quite fortunate in having the S. S. Oceana to call at our little island regularly now, and are able to obtain fresh vegetables several times a year.

On August 11 we were blessed through the arrival of a little daughter. Mrs. Deleporte has been very poorly during the year, and unless she improves very much during the summer months she will have to rest in a cooler climate. We expect to take a sort of rest in the home of our parents, if the Lord opens the way, in a year or so. This will give us an opportunity to carry our Scriptures through the press. I have reasons to believe that this can be done very cheaply in Germany.

With many thanks for the financial aid received from your society, and with best wishes for its welfare,

I am respectfully yours,

PH. A. DELEPORTE.

Mrs. Deleporte's letter, for which we have no space, is still more interesting. She tells of the joy they had in their few visitors, of little Augusta's mission work, of household helpers, of a wedding in a chief's household, and of her daily work among the sick. She seems to be doctor, teacher, friend, everything to these poor island women. No wonder her health is failing and she needs rest.

The exodus of the Gilbertese from these (Hawaiian) islands on the British S. S. "Isleworth," Oct. 19, 1903, was an event of note. The first of these islanders arrived here in 1872. There were in all about fourteen hundred, who came for a term of three years. At the end of their time about nine hundred returned. But for the last sixteen years no opportunity has offered to take the remainder. The climate has been too cold for them. They suffered from tuberculosis and many of them died. Not one owned a foot of land. They were very home-sick.

Through the influence of Mr. Bingham and Mr. John Arundel, a "cousin" on board the Isleworth, arrangements were made to take the two hundred remaining here to their homes for the sum of $1000. About thirty-eight of them possessed a little money, and willingly gave what they could, $600, to help their fellow-countrymen. The rest was made up by friends. It was a happy company that sailed away.

Educational

As appropriations for educational work have been dropped for the present, we could not ask for reports from the schools. Yet these schools have so many sympathizers and well wishers among the Cousins, that we cannot pass them by without a word.

Kawaiahao Seminary has not only had a full attendance and good health, but Miss McLeod, the principal, reports a "quiet growth and steady advance in every department. The improvement is noticeable not only in the studies but in the cheerful industry, the appreciative spirit, and by little acts of unselfishness, which indicate development of character." She says, "The students are showing signs in many cases of earnestness of purpose, strength of character and mental ability above the average." (Additional proof of this good record is given by the deportment of some of these girls during their vacations at home). But the complaint is that things are wearing out. There are not enough chairs, or plates, or cups, or kitchen furniture to supply the every day needs, and no money to buy with.

Kohala Seminary, with its repairs, new paint, new uniforms and new principal, seems to have taken on a new lease of life. Mrs. Bristol says: "The longer I stay the more convinced I am that this school meets the needs of the girls of this island, the majority of whom go back to their homes richer in experience and knowledge, without having had the taste of city life to make them discontented with their surroundings."

The Hilo Boarding School is filled to overflowing. The new building, because of financial depression, is not yet begun. More than a score of energetic and ambitious Japanese, and several Christian Koreans, are members of the school. Sympathy is promoted between the races, and all are inspired to greater effort. At the recent meeting of the Hawaiian Board at Hilo, a resolution favoring the creation of a theological department was passed.†

The new principal of Maunaolu, Miss Snow, has introduced many new features into that school which are working well. These have been adapted from Hampton and other schools. The academic work has been arranged to cover a course of ten years. It is proposed to graduate a class every second year. This class will then have completed the sixth grade. But they will also have received a full course in sewing and house-work. The system of sewing is adapted from the course used at the Pratt Institute and Teachers' College, New York. The girls pass monthly examinations in darning, patching, button-holes, etc., and are now drafting patterns for underclothes for themselves by measurements. The house-work and sewing are now favorite departments. Miss Snow says they are working along the line of development in honesty and responsibility.

Places at Mills Institute are at a premium, and some day scholars are received. The Americanizing influences of this school are remarkable, but the spirit of its founder, Mr. F. W. Damon, to Christianize the Chinese community through the school, seems to pervade it throughout. But without the graphic pen of this absent cousin, or that of his earnest successor, Mr. Thwing, we cannot give any adequate view of the manifold work being carried on among this people.

At Lahainaluna two of the old buildings have been torn down to give place to new ones, and other improvements have been inaugurated in this the oldest Industrial School on the islands.

During the year the Kaiulani Home for girls, in the old Hopper house, on King Street, has been opened, and here with their matron, Mrs. Heapy, and our cousin, Laura Green, are domiciled a number of the graduates of Kamehameha and Kawaiahao schools, normal students and others.

Among the latest educational blessings are the two normal Bible Training classes, held on Saturday evenings and Sunday mornings at the Y. W. C. A. Hall and at Kawaiaha'o Church for training teachers for mission work in the city.

Cousins

Miss M. A. Chamberlain, who has lately seen many of the cousins, tells of the following: She spent a delightful week with Miss Helen S. Norton, former principal of Kawaiaha'o Seminary, at the beautiful residence of her brother near Howell, Michigan. Prof. and Mrs. Lyons, of Detroit, gave her a greeting and welcome never to be forgotten, and at their home she met Dr. and Mrs. Justin Emerson.

At Kalamazoo she visited Mrs. Bowman, formerly Mrs. C. B. Andrews, who was greatly wasted by illness, and waiting for her release, but given unceasing care by her daughter, Miss Lucy Andrews, who made of the sick room a bower of beauty.

At Madison she spent two enjoyable weeks at the home of Dr. Frank A. Lyman, his wife and two fine boys.

At Pecatonica she visited Dr. Charles and Helen Chamberlain Ives with their four children. Here, in the wife of the Congregational minister, Mrs. Mary E. Evans, she found a grand-daughter of T. Dwight Hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Evans were missionaries to China, but were forced to return at the time of the Boxer uprising. Mrs. Evans' father and mother were with her. Her father, Mr. James H. Hunt, was born at the islands, but left at the age of eleven months. He has a son, Rev. Wm. B. Hunt, a missionary in Korea, who expects to make a call in Honolulu when on a vacation trip homeward in the spring of 1905.

At Rockford, Ill., she met Mrs. Lucy Conde King and her sister, Miss Pauline Conde, both of whom long for a visit to Hawaii.

Because of weariness and long distances she missed seeing Mrs. Frances L. Loomis, the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles, who came in the pioneer company which arrived April 19, 1820. Mrs. Loomis is also the grand-mother of the triplet boys, Donald Chester, Dean Loomis and Dale Edward Christiason, whose photographs, with those of the mother and grand-mother, appear in the Friend of Jan., 1904.

From the columns of the Friend, from clippings, from letters and messages we have the following items of interest :

On Nov. 18 Gov. S. B. Dole, having received his commission as Judge of the Federal District Court, vacated the governorship and opened court.

On Nov. 23 Hon. George R. Carter was sworn in as Governor and delivered his inaugural address.

President Roosevelt has appointed Lorrin Andrews, Attorney General of Hawaii, as a Federal Delegate to the Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists, to be held next September in connection with the St. Louis Exposition.

Hon. W. N. Armstrong is enjoying life at the Metropolitan Club in Washington, of which he is a member. His story of travel, "Around the World with a King," has just been published.

Dr. E. G. Beckwith is in good health and able to care for his scattered congregation on Maui.

Letters have been received from Mrs. A. Francis Judd and daughters telling of their pleasant sojourn in Europe, and of their expected return in June.

Miss Mary E. Goodale from Butte, Montana, writes of witnessing a war-dance by a band of Chippewa and Cree Indians ; also, of winter coasting in Butte, where young and old join in the sport. Miss S. M. Potter also writes of the coasting on Long Island, and wishes she were younger that she might join in the sport.

A letter from Mrs. Mary (Anderson) Street encloses this cutting from a Hartford paper of Dec. 28, 1903: " Rev. Dr. George Edward Street, a retired Congregational clergyman and pastor emeritus of the Philips Church, Exeter, N. H., died Dec. 26, at the home of his son-in-law, Rev. W. W. Rawney, pastor of the Park Church. Dr.

Street had been ill only two days. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Mary (Anderson) Street, daughter of the late Rufus Anderson, of Roxbury, Mass., a son, George Howard Street, of Boston, and a daughter, Mrs. Helen (Street) Rawney, of Hartford. The remains will be taken to Exeter, N. H."

Letters have been received from cousin E. C. Bond relating to the permanent fund of the Society. This fund was given by Mr. Bond for missionary work, and the Society understands that any other disposition of it would be a disappointment to its founder. We only wish there were other such funds whose interest could be used for such purposes.

Letters have come from a few Cousins sending yearly dues, and from others, giving change of address.

We would earnestly ask any who know of errors in the address of any cousin to write to the Secretary, giving the number of the street when possible, as twenty copies of our last Annual Report have been returned to us not finding the owner.

We have received a catalogue of Lincoln Academy, at Kings Mountain, N. C., a school for colored youth under the care of the American Board, of which our cousin, Lily A. Cathcart, is principal. It has a normal and industrial department in connection with primary, intermediate and grammar grades.

We are glad to welcome home Mrs. Juliette (Cooke) Atherton, with her daughter, Miss Kate Atherton, also Miss Sarah Flaxman, from their long stay abroad.

Mrs. Arthur Logan, who joins her husband in his Palama work, is welcomed to Honolulu.

Mrs. Kluegel and her daughters have returned from California, Mrs. Helen Alexander and her family from the East, and Mrs. Waterhouse and daughters from London, also Mr. Fred. Waterhouse and family.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, and Mr.

and Mrs. C. M. Cooke have been to the Orient since our last report.

Mrs. E. C. Judd has made a visit to her old home, Honolulu, and her daughter, Mrs. Swanzy, has returned with her to the mainland. Miss H. S. Judd returned six months ago from her two years visit abroad.

Mrs. Belle Jones made a trip to the East with her son Austin, whom she left in school in Orange, N. J.

Prof. and Mrs. Helen (Castle) Mead, who visited in Honolulu a year ago, expect to go to Europe soon. They will sail to Spain and work up through France to Paris. They hope to be in Madrid and board for a few days at Mrs. Wm. Gulick's International College for Girls.

Mrs. S. M. Damon and her daughter, Miss May Damon, have gone for a trip to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dickey are in Oakland.

Mrs. Kincaid has gone East to visit her sick mother, and to attend her daughter's graduation. Mr. Kincaid will follow in June to William's College to receive his degree of D. D. Honors come thick and fast. Only last year cousin W. D. Alexander received the title of LL. D.

April has brought back to us the Misses Hartwell from Boston.

W. O. Smith returned from Washington on the Korea April 22.

Mrs. James Alexander is now visiting her son and daughter on Maui.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atherton are spending a vacation on the slopes of Haleakala. Mrs. Mabel Wing Castle will spend the summer in California.

The S. S. China of April 27 carried away Dr. Bingham and Mrs. Coan to visit Prof. Hiram Bingham, Jr., also Mrs. Sophie Pratt to visit a son in the East.

L. A. Thurston also left for the Coast on the China, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith are booked for the steamer of May 4th.

A farewell reception for Rev. and Mrs. O. P. Emerson will be given at Central Union Church parlors on Thursday evening May 5.

Miss Ethel Andrews, of New York, came with her brother the Attorney General on the S. S. Alameda April 29.

R. S. Andrews is electrician on the U. S. S. Elcano, now at Shanghai, China.

Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, with her daughter Helen, and sons Frederick and Alan, is expected home from Europe about the middle of June.

Mrs. S. T. Alexander is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Waterhouse.

The following letter from Hon. Gorham D. Gilman in response to the testimonial sent him last year, we copy in full:

BOSTON, Nov. 13, 1903.

To the President, Officers, and Members of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society, Honolulu, H. T.

Dear Sir and Friends—The very kind testimonial sent by you came wholly unexpected, but not the less highly prized and appreciated.

To receive such expression of commendation from such a source is most gratifying, and is duly valued not only by myself but by my family.

The early years of manhood spent at the Islands made a deep impression on my life, which forty-three years of absence have not obliterated. I was highly favored in those days, partly because I was somewhat of a curiosity, in that I was the only white young man in his teens that was in Honolulu at the time I landed.

I was generously permitted the hospitality of the homes of the mission fathers and mothers, the privilege of evening worship in the old stone mission-house, then occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain. If I had the painter's art I think I could reproduce the large square room, the not much adorned walls, the wooden chairs, the painted floor, but could not recall, save in memory, the fervent religious services. It was a privilege, also, to be admitted to a friendship with those high chiefs of the old regime, those on whom Christianity had wrought an influence that made for righteousness in the form of life and of government.

My position as a clerk in a store, brought me into direct communication with the common people, made a familiarity with the language a necessity, and more or less friendly acquaintanceship, from the day of my arrival in May, 1841, to that of my departure, with a generous hookupu on the day of my leaving, in 1861.

All this has endeared Hawaii to me ; Hawaii, Pae Aina, as I have been on them all but Kahoolawe,—and as that was, at that time, a penal island, I had no desire to visit its rocky shores,—all this binds me anew, in retrospect, by ties that I have no desire to sunder, though separated by continent and ocean. It does not take long by the telepathy line to be in communication. I cannot be indifferent to sea and land, mountain and valley, the people and the pioneers in the Master's service. The people, and all that combines to constitute Hawaii as it was in the forties and fifties, are memories that are sacred.

To remain quiet when I see attacks made upon those I have honored and revered, or any false charges on the children of those who so freely gave, not only their life-work, but their lives for the cause of Christianity and civilization, I should be unworthy a cognomen I once enjoyed of “Keike hanai o ka aina.”

That I have been permitted to be in any way a defender of those noble souls that have done their work and received their reward, and of them, who as children still maintain the high character of their inheritance, and thus share, in my humble way, “the doing good in our day and generation,” is something I am very grateful for; and I most heartily thank you for the kind testimonial you have been so gracious as to send me, as a recognition of my sharing, in some degree, the obligations of friendship and affection founded so long ago on the islands of the sea.

I trust you will excuse this long letter. My only palliation I can offer for so trespassing on your time and patience is, that to start the subject of Hawaii—its history, its life, its thousand memories,—is like “the letting out of waters.” There is so much in those twenty years of life in and on the “Paradlse of the Pacific,” that my memory “brings the light of other days” around me.

May the bautiful mantle of Christian character of honored parents fall and rest benignantly and beneficially on children and children’s children, and on the land we love and those that dwell therein.

I must close with the one sweet word that, once known and understood, is never forgotten, Aloha.

From your octogenarian friend,

GORHAM D. GILMAN.

The heart knows no age.

In Tokyo, Japan, Miss Emma Alexander, daughter of the late Rev. T. T. Alexander.

Some of these cousins we have never met, but we know that through their deaths lights have been extinguished and hearts have been left torn and bleeding.

We know that when the little one passed away, a fragrance was wafted upward that makes life seem less bright and heaven more homelike.

We know that when cousin Henry Waterhouse left us, it was like the fall of a great Oak in the forest, that carried with it neighboring trees and clustering vines, and that even the half-tamed native birds fly round and round, missing the protecting branches.

In the death of our cousin, Mrs. Bingham, we feel that a ladder to heaven has been drawn up, leaving us gazing upward, as the disciples did at the ascension. So near she lived to heaven when here, yet so near to us, that insensibly she drew us upward, and drew out the best within those about her. We need not talk of her great sufferings, for they are all past, nor of her great work, for in that she lives still, but she herself, with her loving, helpful personality, has gone, and we can but say, as we say of all the dear departed, "we miss her so."

And here is one, Mrs. Alice Gordon Gulick, who seems to have been called to her reward too soon. The cause for which she labored, needs her still. The cause for which she gave her youth, vivacity, enthusiasm and great power of purpose, the cause in which she gave the last consecrated years of her life, and her waning strength, that cause remains without her great leadership. She was the pioneer of woman's education in Spain. For thirty years after leaving Mt. Holyoke College she assisted her husband in upbuilding Spanish character. For thirty years she was at the head of a school which grew in importance till it is now opened up as the International Institute for Girls, at Madrid, Spain. She was not there, in body, at the opening, but do you not suppose she is satisfied that, through her death, younger hearts have become interested and younger hands have taken up the work of raising the endowment funds, and putting up a memorial hall for her beloved school? God's ways are wonderful, even when "He giveth his beloved sleep."

How rapidly the river of time flows into the sea of eternity. Since our annual meeting, cousins have returned, and others have left the islands, and the recorder's pen would be kept busy to follow them all. Some, however, have gone, never to return.

We would note the passing away of our dear Mrs. Westervelt. For more than thirty years she was a constant sufferer, yet her patience and courage never failed. Many times she entered into and returned from the borderland, but this time she awoke on the other side without the frail body and the wearing pain. Our sympathy goes out to him whose care and helper she was through so many years of busy useful life.

The death of Mrs. Emily (Wilder) Cooke brought great sadness to a large circle of dear friends. One who knew her says, "She was a gracious woman, full of good deeds and loving actions, given to hospitality, and bearing sorrows with Christian grace."

And as we go to press, we have word that Mrs. Clara Armstrong Banning went to her eternal home very suddenly on June 14. No particulars have been received, but our hearts are sad for the only son, now speeding over the waves to a mother's empty chair, and for the loving sisters and brother she leaves behind.

"We see but dimly through the mists and vapors ;
Amid these earthly damps
What seem to us but sad funereal tapers
May be heaven's distant lamps."
